This transfer guide is between JCCC Honors Program (<https://www.jccc.edu/student-resources/honors/>) and UCM Honors College:

- After completion of 6-credit hours of the JCCC Honors Program (at B-level or above) and formal acceptance into UCM, JCCC honors students will be automatically accepted into UCM Honors College. JCCC transfer students must still complete the Honors College application, but will have the $100 program fee waived.
- Once enrolled at UCM, JCCC honors students who have completed 6-credit hours of the JCCC Honors Program (at B-level or above) will be immediately eligible for all benefits from UCM's Honors College, including, but not limited to, access to Achauer House, up to $2,000 in honors-only grants, and early enrollment.
- JCCC honors students who complete 6-credits hours (at B-level or above) will have the UCM Honors College requirement for an Honors College-only general education (HCGE) waived. Students will still be required to fulfill UCM general education and program requirements outside of The Honors College.
- JCCC honors students who complete 6-credits hours (at B-level or above) will not have to fulfill 3 credit hours of their Knowledge Area I general education through a language per UCM Honors College requirements. Students will still be required to satisfy UCM general education and program requirements outside of The Honors College.
- JCCC honors students who complete 6-credits hours (at B-level or above) will be required to fulfill UCM Honors College upper-level requirements of HONR 3000 (colloquium) and HONR 4000 (honors project) respectively in order to graduate with an honors distinction.
