

Simpson College

Simpson is a private, liberal arts college in Indianola, Iowa, just 12 miles south of Des Moines. Its proximity to the state capital allows students to obtain exceptional internship and research opportunities while they build relationships with professors that know their name and care about their success, even after they graduate. With a 99% placement rate after graduation, Simpson prepares students for the unexpected.

Location: Indianola, Iowa

Simpson College website (<https://simpson.edu/>)

Admissions Representative:

- Dawn Barnes
dawn.barnes@simpson.edu

Virtual appointments are available; email the Admissions Representative to schedule.